

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS.

All persons in favor of the adoption of the pending Prohibitory Amendment to the constitution of the State of Oregon, are hereby requested to meet at their respective places of voting, in the several precincts of Linn county, Oregon, on Friday, the 1st day of April, A. D. 1887, at the hour of 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of organizing Precinct Prohibitory Amendment Leagues. A full attendance is desired. T. J. Wilson, Chairman Linn County Prohibitory Amendment League.

Local and General.

Rabbits! Farmers are all busy. Amity has got the mumps. Lots of strangers in town this week. Look out for immense crops this year. Say, is a blind man a good judge of beauty? The roads are getting in a fair condition for travel. What's the difference if you are ugly if you're happy? The ditch must be built. Lebanon needs it in her business. "Competition is the life of trade." Lebanon is just booming.

Mrs. C. H. Harmon is visiting relatives and friends, in Portland. M. E. Hearn is having a neat stable built, on his lot near the depot. Charley Montague is very sick with an attack of acute rheumatism. Rev. Mead will preach at Smith's school house, next Sabbath at 11 A. M. Correspondence from all localities respectfully solicited. Let us hear from you, readers.

A young man named Clark was mistook for a deer and shot, recently on the Alsea bay. Be careful. G. W. Smith, Esq., visited the county seat during this week. He reports everything quiet down there. Mrs. L. E. Bland and Mrs. Walter Montague of Albany, visited Lebanon relatives, and friends this week. William M. Turney, of Jacksonville, at one time editor of Sentinel and an able writer, died on the 9th inst.

Mowery Bros. have sold their farm near Sweet Home, to Mr. Griffith. The boys have gone to The Dalles. A very large immigration is being watched for on the Pacific Coast the coming summer. Lebanon will get her share. Miss Florence Ballard exhibits a fine painting of Mr. How at Andrews & Hackleman's store. It evinces marked artistic ability.

Revs. Wooley and Starr will fill their respective pulpits, morning and evening at the C. P. church and Academy to-morrow (Sunday). Our attention was directed a few days since to some paintings executed by Miss Ida Montague, which speaks well for her as an artist.

Rev. Mr. Hanna, of Corvallis, will preach, this (Saturday) evening, and Sunday, morning and evening at the Presbyterian church. This is the season of the year when the small boy maketh arrangements to go-a-fishin' on Sunday, and hawthorn viciously when his "daddy" says "No!" Some idea of the business done in Lebanon may be had from the fact that 125,240 pounds of live freight, principally merchandise, came in on Tuesday night train.

The Oregonian railway (Limited) will on the 26th of this month, put on a mail train. The little road will then make good schedule time. Time card in due time.

By reference to another column, it will be seen that M. E. Hearn is prepared to furnish customers with all kinds of fresh fish, twice a week, Wednesdays and Saturdays. On Tuesday last W. C. Peterson received from Chicago a fine lot of apparatus and tools of the latest designs in the jewelry line. Walt keeps up with the trade in every particular.

Now, that Dr. Will Jackson has bought the Jacksonville Sentinel, the republicans of Southern Oregon will have an organ they can rely on. Doc, we wish you abundant success.

Max Friendly, of Corvallis, intends to start a big drive of logs down the McKenzie to Corvallis about the middle of next month. It will furnish employment to a large number of men.

Detectives now claim that Willis Skiff the merchant of Union, who mysteriously disappeared last fall, was not murdered, but skipped on account of his debts.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Wm. Werth, our efficient butcher, finds it necessary on account of ill health, to sell out his business at this place. An "ad" to this effect appears in another column.

Hon. Samuel Owens and wife, of Lincoln Nebraska, after spending the winter in San Francisco, arrived here Wednesday night and will be guests of Mrs. Dr. Ballard for a few days previous to their return east.

It is understood that the resignation of Dr. Joseph as superintendent of the Oregon Insane Asylum has been tendered to the board of commissioners to take effect July 1st, and that it will be accepted upon the conditions named.

Mr. T. S. Pillsbury the enterprising jeweler of Brownsville, certainly deserves the kind regards of the people of that town for his efforts in making THE EXPRESS a welcome visitor to them. As a local reporter, he has few superiors.

Geo. Rowell, hotel proprietor of Sweet Home, was in Lebanon Tuesday. He informs us that he will in connection with his hotel, keep a general variety store, where the traveling public can be accommodated with anything they may desire.

Mr. L. F. Conn, contractor and builder, returned to Lebanon from Albany Wednesday. He has a number of contracts on hand which, we presume will soon be commenced. We expect to see several fine buildings, put up in Lebanon this summer.

J. A. Beards, druggist, who visited Jefferson during last week reports crops looking well in that part of the country and everybody busy putting in the spring grain. The same may be said of the farmers of this vicinity, and in fact, all over the valley.

The bleached bones of a 10-year-old child were found near Canyon City the other day. A plausible theory advanced is that during the Indian raid of 1878 the red demons murdered a family of immigrants and captured the child which afterwards made its escape and perished.

A Corvallis paper of the 11th inst. says: Wheat took a jump up to 80 cts. on Tuesday, the 8th inst. A telegram from San Francisco, quoting wheat at $1.00 caused the raise. The market still has an upward tendency, and it is possible that the dollar mark may be reached.

C. H. Prescott, manager of the O. R. & N. Co., has resigned his position to take effect at once. As yet president Smith has not accepted the resignation and it is believed that he will not accept it. However, Mr. Prescott has determined to engage in other business. He will continue to reside in Portland.

Several persons at Grant's Pass will probably be indicted by the next grand jury for violating the game law. It is believed that the officers of the law are included in the list. J. C. Gilliam, of that place, was arrested during last week for running down deer with hounds and was held to answer with bonds at $100.

On Wednesday of this week, Mr. Thos. Wallace, of the firm of Wallace & Thompson, leading grocers, Albany, gave us a pleasant call leaving his name for THE EXPRESS, also copy for the next issue, which appears in another column, by which it will be seen this firm are sole agents for the celebrated Geyserite soaps, manufactured at Denver, Colorado. Certainly a brand which will monopolize the trade. A trial bar will convince anyone of this fact.

John Davidson, a simple minded youth living near Monroe, Benton county, was made to believe by some young men that they were going to kill him, whereupon he ran away from them, and taking a valuable horse belonging to F. Kirtland, fled to the mountains. He afterwards voluntarily returned the horse but was afterwards arrested and placed in jail.

I. C. McHarge, who has leased the Wilson House, for the ensuing eighteen months, will take possession on the first of May, from which time he will be prepared to attend to the extensive wants of the general public in a manner most satisfactory.

Our merchants during the past week have been cleaning, overhauling, and straightening up their stores, receiving and placing in tempting array new stocks of spring goods. The general activity is taking place in business circles and all are looking forward to a good spring trade.

Died—March 8, at the residence of R. Glass, Crawfordville, Miss Nancy Gray, aged 94 years. Miss Gray was a lady, who by her amiable and faultless character had made many friends. She was generally known throughout the valley, and leaves a large circle of loving friends to mourn her demise.

Kathleen Mayerson, a female, presented to the Brownsville public on the evening of Tuesday last, by the Emma Heath Dramatic Co., was a decided success. A good house greeted the company in their rendering of this truly beautiful Irish comedy company drama. We bespeak a hearty welcome for this meritorious troupe wherever they may go.

On account of the inclemency of the weather, the lecture advertised for Thursday night was postponed until the following evening, when a full house greeted Rev. E. Haskell on "An hour in the Stars." The mighty machinery of the universe was made thoroughly intelligible by moving diagrams and all attending voted the lecture an intellectual treat.

A heart rending occurrence was the death by burning of the little daughter of Samuel Smith, which occurred during the past week at the parents residence near Corvallis. During a brief absence of the family, the clothing of the children caught fire, resulting in the severe burning of the youngest child, and death of the oldest girl, whose clothing was entirely consumed before her terrible condition was discovered.

James H. Washburn and son have purchased from William Fugus, of Parker Station, Polk Co., twelve head of Red, Short Horn, Durham cattle, thorough breeds, that were brought from Kansas City, Mo., by Mr. Fugus. It is the desire of the purchaser to raise a pure line of this breed for beef and stock purposes. There seems to be but little doubt that in the future this locality will be able to compete with the east in the production of fine stock.

Trustees' Meeting. At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Santiam Academy, held at the academy March 15, 1887, among other proceedings was the appointment of a class for 1890. The names of James Ridgeway, E. Stringer, G. H. Bland, A. N. Anderson and Charles Ralston were presented and unanimously elected. Also the following resolution:

Resolved, That the board of trustees of Santiam Academy hereby reiterate their expression of confidence in the integrity and ability of Prof. J. L. Gilbert, in his management of the academy, and their gratification that he has decided to continue as principal of the academy for the ensuing year.

Unanimously adopted. A. R. CYRUS, Sec.

IN MEMORIAM. George Wilson whose life has been despaired of for a long time passed away on the morning of the 16th inst., surrounded by relatives and friends. He was born in Whites Sides county, Illinois, in May, 1857, and emigrated to Oregon in 1880, and has since resided near Sweet Home. By his honest and upright life he won the respect of all who knew him, and by his death we lose one of our most esteemed and respected citizens and friends. He leaves an aged father and mother to mourn his untimely death and many warm friends who tender to them their heartfelt sympathy in this their sad bereavement. Our friend was one of those rare and gifted souls of whom the poet never heard, and who speak ill of him or he speak ill of others. A little over a year ago in bluish of health George was laid upon a bed of affliction and in the last six months he has been a great sufferer. Why he was cut down in the prime of manhood none but the creator of all things can solve. Although he has gone from among us his memory will ever rest with us as one whom we respected in life and mourn in death.

At home they raise his tender love; His death is grief to many friends, But oh! in that blessed world above No love or friendship ever ends. Weep not for him who died; For he sleeps and is at rest; And the coach wherein he lieth Is the green earth's quiet guest. H. C. M. Sweet Home, March 21.

Mr. Moreland of Lebanon, passed through this part of the country last week, on a canvassing tour. By his actions, a person might have reasonably thought he had other business, or giving a thorough canvass of a favorite family of his. SANTIAM.

To Advertisers. We would say for the benefit of advertisers, that we retain the subscribers to the Brownsville Informant, in addition to those of THE EXPRESS, enables this paper to be the best advertising medium for the south-eastern portion of Linn county. THE EXPRESS starts out with near five hundred subscribers and the list is rapidly increasing. Please make a note of this. Rates reasonable.

FORKS OF THE SANTIAM. March 21. Mr. Editor:—From time to time I will send you items from this vicinity. As your paper upholds the temperance cause, I hope that our people will be interested in it and that it will shortly be found in every family in this part of the valley.

H. F. Dickens is said to have sold his interest, in the estate of Jerry and Permelia Dickens, to his brothers.

We will soon have a postoffice at the South Santiam R. R. station, where we can get a daily mail. Then we will all want THE EXPRESS.

Farmers are improving these fine days and plowing is going on in all directions, making ready for seeding, in the hope of a rich harvest.

Cattle are improving in flesh. Calves are selling at $10 and $11 per head, and business is beginning to look cheerful, giving promise of better times ahead.

Born.—Tuesday, March 8, to the wife of L. A. Tucker, a son, Weight, 11 1/2 pounds. On the same date, to the wife of G. W. Nelson, a son. Father and son doing well.

BROWNVILLE NEWS.

Spring. Drummers. Farmers are busy plowing. Thermometer 70° on Tuesday. Fall wheat is thrifty and strong. Shade and fruit trees are being set out.

W. B. Blanchard has purchased the McDowell property. Earl, the infant child of Charles Younger is extremely ill. Leroy Templeton, the little son of A. M. Templeton is quite ill.

Mrs. Harmon Swank departed for Centerville on Thursday last. Spring work is commencing and the sound of the carpenter's hammer is heard.

R. L. Blanchard took possession of his recently purchased property on Wednesday last. Mrs. J. M. Waters who has been visiting friends at Harrisburg, returned home on Tuesday last.

On Tuesday, Findley McRae returned from Albany, to which place he had accompanied the last drive of logs. Elbert Cable visited Albany on Wednesday last, returning home on the following Friday, with a teachers certificate.

Preparations are being made for another entertainment to be given by the W. C. T. U., date of which will be given in next issue.

Charles Payne, in the employ of Arthurs & Bishop, received a wound in the hand, from a silver of steel which flew from a swedge entering the ball of the thumb, from which place it was extracted by Dr. L. W. Starr.

On Monday morning last, William Watson and family, accompanied by Mrs. Jos. Harrison, started for Baker City, near which place Mr. Watson will locate. Mrs. Harrison, his mother, remaining with him for the next six months.

J. C. McHarge, who has leased the Wilson House, for the ensuing eighteen months, will take possession on the first of May, from which time he will be prepared to attend to the extensive wants of the general public in a manner most satisfactory.

Murray, Idaho.

Mr. A. Ervin, a former resident of Lebanon, writing to D. Andrews, of the firm of Andrews & Hackleman, in a letter ordering THE EXPRESS for one year, has the following to say concerning Murray: "This will be a fine mining camp in a few years more. The mines are here but the capital and machinery to work them have not yet arrived. There are three mills here now, and I think there will be many more in the near future; but it takes time to develop things in this direction."

Notice. All persons knowing themselves indebted to F. H. Roscoe, on blacksmithing account, will please call and pay immediately, and save costs. I must have my money.
